A Session at the Olympic Academy.

OBJECTIVES OF THE OLYMPIC ACADEMY

Minutes after an address delivered in 1956, in June 20, 1961, to the 1956 Session President of the International Olympic Committee.

"We have many problems that in the coming days must be solved. It is the Olympic Academy's task to help the International Olympic Committee in this regard."

"The International Olympic Committee was created to change the Olympic Movement, with the aim of making the Olympic Games a great and glorious event. It was created to help the Olympic Movement in its task of organizing and conducting the Olympic Games and to help the Olympic Movement in its task of promoting the Olympic Movement."

"The objectives of the Olympic Movement are to be based on the Olympic Charter, and to be based on the Olympic Charter. It is the Olympic Academy's task to help the Olympic Movement in its task of organizing and conducting the Olympic Games and to help the Olympic Movement in its task of promoting the Olympic Movement."

"The Olympic Academy is the only organization of the International Olympic Committee."
